About the survey

Government budget decisions – what taxes to levy, what services to provide, and how much debt to take on – affect how equal a society is and the well-being of its people, including whether the most disadvantaged will have real opportunities for a better life. It is critical that governments inform and engage the public on these vital decisions that impact their lives.

The Open Budget Survey (OBS) is the world's only independent, comparative and fact-based research instrument that uses internationally accepted criteria to assess public access to central government budget information; formal opportunities for the public to participate in the national budget process; and the role of budget oversight institutions such as the legislature and auditor in the budget process.

The survey helps local civil society assess and confer with their government on the reporting and use of public funds. This 7th edition of the OBS covers 117 countries.

What changed in OBS 2019?

Eswatini has increased the availability of budget information by:

- Publishing the Executive's Budget Proposal and Enacted Budget online.

Recommendations

Eswatini should prioritize the following actions to improve budget transparency:

- Publish the Pre-Budget Statement, In-Year Reports, Mid-Year Review, and Year-End Report online in a timely manner.
- Produce and publish the Citizens Budget online in a timely manner.
- Include in the Executive's Budget Proposal policy and debt information.
- Improve the comprehensiveness of the Audit Report.

Extent of opportunities for public participation in the budget process

few: 0 - 40; limited: 41 - 60; adequate: 61 - 100

Recommendations

To further strengthen public participation in the budget process, Eswatini's Ministry of Finance should prioritize the following actions:

- Pilot mechanisms to engage the public during budget formulation and to monitor budget implementation.
- Actively engage with vulnerable and underrepresented communities, directly or through civil society organizations representing them.

Eswatini's Parliament should prioritize the following actions:

- Allow members of the public or civil society organizations to testify during its hearings on the budget proposal prior to its approval.
- Allow members of the public or civil society organizations to testify during its hearings on the Audit Report.

Eswatini's Office of the Auditor General should prioritize the following actions to improve public participation in the budget process:

- Establish formal mechanisms for the public to assist in developing its audit program and to contribute to relevant audit investigations.

Budget Oversight

The OBS also examines the role that legislatures and supreme audit institutions (SAIs) play in the budget process and the extent to which they provide oversight; each country is scored on a scale from 0 to 100 based on 18 equally weighted indicators. In addition, the survey collects supplementary information on independent fiscal institutions (see Box).

The legislature and supreme audit institution in Eswatini, together, provide weak oversight during the budget process, with a composite oversight score of 39 (out of 100). Taken individually, the extent of each institution's oversight is shown below:

Legislative oversight

Audit oversight

weak: 0 - 40; limited: 41 - 60; adequate: 61 - 100

Recommendations

Eswatini's Parliament provides limited oversight during the planning stage of the budget cycle and limited oversight during the implementation stage. To improve oversight, the following actions should be prioritized:

- The Executive's Budget Proposal should be submitted to legislators at least two months before the start of the budget year.
- Legislative committees should examine the Executive's Budget Proposal and publish reports with their analysis online.
- A legislative committee should examine in-year budget implementation and publish reports with their findings online.
- In practice, ensure the legislature is consulted before the executive spends any unanticipated revenue.

- A legislative committee should examine the Audit Report and publish a report with their findings online.

To strengthen independence and improve audit oversight by the Eswatini Office of the Auditor General, the following actions are recommended:

- Require legislative or judicial approval to appoint and remove the head of the supreme audit institution.
- Ensure the supreme audit institution has adequate funding to perform its duties, as determined by an independent body (e.g., the legislature or judiciary).
- Ensure audit processes are reviewed by an independent agency.

The emerging practice of establishing independent fiscal institutions

Eswatini does not have an independent fiscal institution (IFI). IFIs are increasingly recognized as valuable independent and nonpartisan information providers to the Executive and/or Parliament during the budget process.

Methodology

- Only documents published and events, activities, or developments that took place through 31 December 2018 were assessed in the OBS 2019.
- The survey is based on a questionnaire completed in each country by an independent budget expert:
Lungile Mnisi, Ndimphiwe Shabangu, and Mphile Sihlongonyane
Coordinating Assembly of Non-Governmental Organisations (CANGO)
Plot No. 419, JSM Matsebula Street, Mbabane, Eswatini
cango@cango.org.sz
- To further strengthen the research, each country's draft questionnaire is also reviewed by an anonymous independent expert, and in Eswatini by a representative of the Ministry of Finance.
