About the survey

Government budget decisions – what taxes to levy, what services to provide, and how much debt to take on – affect how equal a society is and the well-being of its people, including whether the most disadvantaged will have real opportunities for a better life. It is critical that governments inform and engage the public on these vital decisions that impact their lives.

The Open Budget Survey (OBS) is the world's only independent, comparative and fact-based research instrument that uses internationally accepted criteria to assess public access to central government budget information; formal opportunities for the public to participate in the national budget process; and the role of budget oversight institutions such as the legislature and auditor in the budget process.

The survey helps local civil society assess and confer with their government on the reporting and use of public funds. This 7th edition of the OBS covers 117 countries.

Visit www.internationalbudget.org/open-budget-survey for more information, including the full OBS methodology, the 2019 Global Report, findings for all surveyed countries, and the Data Explorer.

Transparency

This part of the OBS measures public access to information on how the central government raises and spends public resources. It assesses the online availability, timeliness, and comprehensiveness of eight key budget documents using 109 equally weighted indicators and scores each country on a scale of 0 to 100. A transparency score of 61 or above indicates a country is likely publishing enough material to support informed public debate on the budget.

Mongolia has a transparency score of 56 (out of 100).

What changed in OBS 2019?

Mongolia has increased the availability of budget information by:

- Publishing the Year-End Report online.
- Publishing the Pre-Budget Statement online in a timely manner.

However, Mongolia has decreased the availability of budget information by:

- Reducing the information provided in the Enacted Budget.

Recommendations

Mongolia should prioritize the following actions to improve budget transparency:

- Publish the Citizens Budget online in a timely manner.
- Produce and publish the Mid-Year Review online in a timely manner.
- Improve the comprehensiveness of information presented in the Executive's Budget Proposal, Enacted Budget and Year-End Report by:
  - Including in the Executive's Budget Proposal actual outcomes of revenue collection for two years or more prior to the budget year and increasing information on the composition of debt for the budget year and prior years.
  - Including in the Year-End Report performance information and details on the outcomes and composition of debt as compared to the original estimates.
  - Including in the Enacted Budget details on revenues for the budget year and expenditures by a comprehensive economic classification and functional classification.

Extent of opportunities for public participation in the budget process

few: 0 - 40; limited: 41 - 60; adequate: 61 - 100

Recommendations

Mongolia's Ministry of Finance has established e-consultations during budget implementation but, to further strengthen public participation in the budget process, should also prioritize the following actions:

- Pilot mechanisms to engage the public during budget formulation.
- Actively engage with vulnerable and underrepresented communities, directly or through civil society organizations representing them.

Mongolia's State Great Khural has established submissions related to the approval of the annual budget, but should also prioritize the following actions:

- Allow any member of the public or any civil society organization to testify during its hearings on the budget proposal prior to its approval.
- Allow members of the public or civil society organizations to testify during its hearings on the Audit Report.

Mongolia's National Audit Office has established mechanisms to assist the supreme audit institution in developing its audit program. To improve public participation in the budget process it should:

- Establish formal mechanisms for the public to contribute to relevant audit investigations.

Budget Oversight

The OBS also examines the role that legislatures and supreme audit institutions (SAIs) play in the budget process and the extent to which they provide oversight; each country is scored on a scale from 0 to 100 based on 18 equally weighted indicators. In addition, the survey collects supplementary information on independent fiscal institutions (see Box).

The legislature and supreme audit institution in Mongolia, together, provide adequate oversight during the budget process, with a composite oversight score of 80 (out of 100). Taken individually, the extent of each institution's oversight is shown below:

Legislative oversight

Audit oversight

weak: 0 - 40; limited: 41 - 60; adequate: 61 - 100

Recommendations

Mongolia's State Great Khural provides adequate oversight during the planning stage of the budget cycle and limited oversight during the implementation stage. To further improve oversight, the following actions should be prioritized:

- A legislative committee should examine in-year budget implementation and publish reports with their findings online.
- In practice, ensure the legislature is consulted before the executive shifts funds specified in the Enacted Budget between administrative units during the budget year.

To strengthen independence and improve audit oversight by the Mongolia National Audit Office, the following actions are recommended:

- Ensure audit processes are reviewed by an independent agency.

The emerging practice of establishing independent fiscal institutions

Mongolia has an independent fiscal institution (IFI), the Fiscal Stability Council . Its independence is set in law, and it reports to the legislature.

Methodology

- Only documents published and events, activities, or developments that took place through 31 December 2018 were assessed in the OBS 2019.
- The survey is based on a questionnaire completed in each country by an independent budget expert:
Oyunbadam Davaakhuu and Narantuya Chuluunbat
Open Society Forum
Jamiyan Gun Street-5/1, Sukhbaatar District, Ulaanbaatar 14240, Mongolia oyunbadam@forum.mn
- To further strengthen the research, each country's draft questionnaire is also reviewed by an anonymous independent expert, and in Mongolia by a representative of the Ministry of Finance.
