The Executive's Budget Proposal
Estimates for the Budget Year and Beyond
1. Does the executive's budget or any supporting budget documentation present expenditures for the budget year that are classified by administrative unit (that is, by ministry, department, or agency)? <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. All expenditures are classified by administrative unit.</li> <li>b. Expenditures are classified by administrative unit, but some small units are not shown separately.</li> <li>c. Expenditures are classified by administrative unit, but a significant number of units are not shown separately.</li> <li>d. No expenditures classified by administrative unit are presented.</li> <li>e. Not applicable/other (please comment).</li> </ol> Citation: Comment:  The Executive's Budget Proposal is not available to Public. The document is titled "Projet de Budget de l'Etat pour 2007," September 2006. This very important document is not posted on the website of the Ministry of Finance. It may be viewed and photocopied in the Parliament Library on an individual basis, but copies are not distributed free or at minimal cost to the public in the Library. In Algeria, the Executive's Budget Proposal was introduced to the legislature on September 2006. The legislature subsequently enacted the budget on December 26, 2006. Questions 1-55 are specifically intended to evaluate the information that is available to the public during the time that the proposed budget is under consideration by the legislature. A member of Algeria's legislature known to researcher provided the researcher with a copy of the Executive's Budget Proposal during legislative consideration of the draft budget "Projet de Budget de l'Etat pour l'an 2007." However, under the study's criteria for evaluating the public availability of budget documents, this document cannot be considered "available to the public." The study's definition for "publicly available" documents requires that a document be available to any member of the public who requests it from the agency that issues it free of charge, or at a minimal fee. In this case, the issuing agency is the Ministry of Finance. Because the document was not freely available from the Ministry of Finance during legislative consideration, IBP does not consider the budget proposal to be available to the public. Peer Reviewer One Comment: Peer Reviewer Two Comment:	d

Leaflets and flyers are distributed to the general public when the Directorate General of Taxes organizes a one day-seminar to explain the current tax system. Sometimes when the Budget Law is made public, the Directorate General of Taxes (Direction Générale des Impôts et de la Législation Fiscale) is invited by Chambers of Commerce and professional organizations, such as the accountants, and presents details of the new taxation, which is bound to affect the employers and their enterprises. It is a sort of workshop organized for professionals interested by the fiscal system.

Peer Reviewer One Comment: What is described in the comment above concerns information made available to the public by the Tax Directorate on the various taxes, rates, and methods of payment. However, I have not seen a description on how the tax burden is shared between taxpayers. So the final grade may need to be lower.

Peer Reviewer Two Comment:

Researcher Response: I chose my answer because the information provided in the leaflets is sufficiently documented and accurate. It shows exactly how the burden of the tax system is going to be shared among the taxpayers. While the matter can be considered too technical, the rates as stated in the leaflet give a rough idea of the burden to be shared. Nonetheless, it should be mentioned that the Ministry of Finance is not able to come up with a clear picture to share this information with the general public. Much data is missing and collecting it is challenging. This exercise needs lot of expertise and complex calculations. Tax evasion and fraud are real facts and not to be under-considered.

We take into consideration the European Union and Regional Development Banks and the Islamic Development Banks. For example, in the "Loi n° 05-16 du 31 décembre 2005 portant loi de finances pour 2006" one might look at Chapter IV – Dispositions Diverses applicables aux opérations financières de l'Etat, Article n°85. This article provides an explanation of the conditions associated with foreign assistance.

Peer Reviewer One Comment: I have not seen in the various Algerian websites any information about conditions associated with assistance from International Financial Institutions. I suggest a lower grade.

Peer Reviewer Two Comment:

Researcher Response: I chose my answer because these information related to the conditions associated with assistance from international financial institutions (IFI) can be found on various websites where Algeria is concerned: For example:

“The EIB provides long-term loans, running from approximately four to 20 years (possibly more), depending on the economic life of the assets to be financed. As well as fixed interest rates, the Bank can offer revisable fixed and convertible rates, allowing for the change of interest rate formula during the life of the loan at predetermined dates or periods. EIB variable rate loans are usually available at a spread below LIBOR, fixed for the full maturity of the loan at the time of each draw down.

In addition to its usually advantageous lending rates, the EIB normally charges neither commitment fees nor non-utilisation fees, but fees for a project's appraisal and required legal services may be applicable in certain cases.

The EIB seeks adequate security for its lending, such as that provided by a bank or banking syndicate, a financial institution, or a large diversified parent company with a good credit rating. In certain circumstances, the Bank may also include a risk margin in the financing arrangements.

The EIB seeks assurances that no other creditor is in a more favorable position than itself, taking into account the tenor and expected amount of the commitment.

The EIB monitors the project's progress, and may carry out onsite inspection. It may also prepare an end of project evaluation report.”

Comment:

The summary, published in a document dated September 2006, is very informative for the general public. It presents the different increases as well as cuts in public spending and taxes. The summary is distributed to the media as well as to parliamentarians at the beginning of the discussion of the draft budget. The media gives a quite extensive coverage of the various measures contained in the proposed budget concentrating most of the time on the ones affecting the population.

Peer Reviewer One Comment: This document is not available on the main official websites of the government and I could not find it elsewhere. If it is the “Rapport the presentation du projet de Loi de Finances that is sent by the MoF to the Parliament, then the grade “A” is far too high. If it is another widely published document by the press, then some of the previous answers and comments by the first reviewer should be amended and grades changed. This point has to be clarified with the first reviewer.

Peer Reviewer Two Comment:

Researcher Response: I chose my answer “a” because one should be very aware that “the Loi de Finances” of the year is encapsulated in a Medium Term Perspective or Plan. And to be specific, the Budget Draft submitted to discussion to the Parliament for 2006 or 2007 is the second and the third step to implement the “Programme Quinquennal d’équipement public 2005-2009.” Now, this document can be found on two official Websites: “Les grandes lignes du programme complémentaire de soutien à la croissance” at:

<http://www.elmouradia.dz/francais/infos/actualite/archives/soutienCroissance.htm>, or « Le Plan de Relance Economique » at : <http://www.cg.gov.dz/dossiers.htm>.

Those two official documents are the background of the budget draft. I am not mentioning other documents released for the media such as: “Communiqué de Presse” etc.

IBP Comment: IBP editors chose answer, “a” relying on the comment provided by the researcher.

Comment:

This question can be answered both ways, “a” or “d,” but the latter is more likely for Algeria.

- “a” All expenditures including the contingency funds and funds with no specific purposes are included in the budget and all are approved before being expended. According to article 21 of the law, 84-17 dated 17 July 1984 related to the finance acts: “expenditures can be recorded in chapters of global credits (charges communes), when it comes to common charges applicable to the State budget or expenditures whose distribution cannot be determined in the time of approval. This type of credit can be allocated during the year in accordance with the regulations.” In the 2007 budget law, the common charges represent 20.5% of the current expenditures. In the complement budget for 2007, the share is 13.1%.
- “d” However, the details of the amounts involved and the purpose for which they are to be used are not clearly identified by the executive. The legislature approves, before hand, or “à priori” the total amount of the global credits (charges communes) and has no precise idea of the final destination of the funds to be spent during the year.

Researcher Additional Comments:

The 2007 IBP Questionnaire looks pretty much the same as the previous one completed. When we look throughly at some aspects of the transparency it seems the procedure is getting less and less transparent. I have been told by a senior executive at the Ministry of Finance that it would be very difficult to see improvements in the presentation of the budget in terms of transparency.

The legislative branch is also in the same position. They do not have very much involvement in the process.

The Audit Institution continues to operate in the dark very far away from its official missions.

The media from time to time reports on the mis-use of public money or on the lack of transparency but it remains words and expression.

At the end, I should mention that the three institutions concerned by transparency, namely the Minister of Finance, the Parliaments and the Audit Court, have not shown great enthusiasm to meet us and talk about this issue. All our faxes have remain unanswered, and appointments with some senior executives have been dropped without explanations.
