Citation and/or comment: Refer to Budget law no. 9339 dated 21.12.2004, table 1 and 1.1. The level of expenditures is presented only by main budget institution, not by administrative unit. Also, Albania still uses the GFS - 86 classification for expenditures. This information is sent to the legislature in the same format as it is published when the budget law is approved. The budget proposal is published on the MoF site at the time it is approved by the Council of Ministers and is sent to the Legislature.

Peer Reviewer ONE Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “d.” In fact table 1 of the law shows a list of 79 different administrative units (e.g. ministries, directorates, agencies, etc.). The list appears pretty exhaustive. That would mean answer “a.” However, questions 1-55 should not be answered using the enacted budget but the budget proposal – thus rather something that looks like the document published in November 2004 that is available at the ministry’s web site and is called: Paketa Fiskale 2005.pdf. In this publication expenditures are not classified by administrative unit – thus the answer should be “d.”

Peer Reviewer TWO Comment:

IBP Comment: IBP editors maintained the researcher’s response. Even though the researchers reference the budget law, the researcher stated that the executive’s budget proposal is made public and published on-line at the time is sent to the Legislature. In case one needs to examine the executive’s budget proposal, the researchers state that they are able to produce a copy of the executive’s budget proposal for inspection.
2. Does the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation present expenditures for the budget year that are classified by functional classification?

   a. All expenditures are classified by functional classification, and the categorization is compatible with international standards.
   b. All expenditures are classified by functional classification, but the categorization is not compatible with international standards.
   c. Some, but not all, expenditures are classified by function.
   d. No expenditures classified by function are presented.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

   Citation and/or comment: Referring to the above answer, the expenditures are classified by functional classification, but based on GFS -86. Refer to Budget law no. 9339 dated 21.12.2004, table 6 (the budget proposal is published on the MoF site).

   Peer Reviewer ONE Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “d.” The researcher uses enacted budget data. No such information in document Paketa Fiskale 2005.pdf.

   Peer Reviewer TWO Comment:

   IBP Comment: Same as comment to question 1.

3. Does the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation present expenditures for the budget year that are classified by economic classification?

   a. All expenditures are classified by economic classification, and the categorization is compatible with international standards.
   b. All expenditures are classified by economic classification, but the categorization is not compatible with international standards.
   c. Some, but not all, expenditures are classified by economic classification.
   d. No expenditures classified by economic classification are presented.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

   Citation and/or comment: The new economic classification was introduced in 2005, but the treasury system is not able to implement it. In the meantime, all expenditures are classified by economic classification, see Budget law nr 9339 date 21.12.2004, table 7 and 8.

   Peer Reviewer ONE Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “d.” The researcher uses enacted budget data. No such information in document Paketa Fiskale 2005.pdf. Answer “b” could remain if we accept the Medium Term Budget Program (MTBP) as a supporting document (see comment on question 5)

   Peer Reviewer TWO Comment:

   IBP Comment: Same as comment to question 1.
4. Does the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation present expenditures for individual programs for the budget year?

   a. Program-level data are presented for all expenditures.
   b. Program-level data are presented for at least two-thirds of, but not all, expenditures.
   c. Program-level data are presented, but for less than two-thirds of expenditures.
   d. No program-level data are presented.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

Citation and/or comment: Starting 2002, the budget is presented by program-level data (see Budget law nr 9339, date 21.12.2004, table 7). It is important to stress that the expenditures of local government are not presented by program level during the preparation phase – they are presented only when the expenditures are spent.

Peer Reviewer ONE Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “d.” The researcher uses enacted budget data. No such information in document Paketa Fiskale 2005.pdf.

Peer Reviewer TWO Comment:

IBP Comment: Same as comment to question 1.
5. In the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation, are estimates of the aggregate level of expenditure presented for a multi-year period (at least two years beyond the budget year)?

   a. Yes, multi-year estimates of aggregate expenditure are presented.
   b. No, multi-year estimates of aggregate expenditure are not presented.
   c. Not applicable/other (please comment).

   Citation and/or comment: These indicators are presented in the Medium Term Budget Program (MTBP) 2005-2007, 2006-2008 (or multi year period) and in the budget sent by the executive to the parliament. The MTBP 2005-2007 is prepared during the first six months of the year. There are differences between the annual budget and MTBP indicators, but it is a normal process that has come in progress year by year. It is important that all have an idea about the fiscal situation over the three-year period.

   Peer Reviewer ONE Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “a.” Every midyear, the Ministry of Finance publishes a Medium Term Budget Program (MTBP). According to its own definition, the MTBP is a document that is approved by the government each year. It provides a comprehensive analysis of public spending and sets out the key parameters and priorities for the subsequent development of the annual budget. It also provides the mechanism through which the priority measures identified in the National Strategy for Socio-Economic Development (NSSED) are integrated into the budget process. Given that the MTBP is not released strictly alongside the budget, the answer to the present question may as well be a “c.” However, given the poor statistical and forecasting basis of the country macroeconomic projections and assumptions, they do not change a lot. In fact each year the forecasts for real GDP growth of the subsequent years are “by definition” 6% (the same holds true for inflation which is expected to accommodate to the Central bank’s inflation target). Thus the answer “a” to the present question appears more appropriate. For that matter one can also compare the projection tables in the MTBP document (PBA 2005-2007.pdf) and the respective budget document (Paketa Fiskale 2005.pdf) on the finance ministry’s web site. The projections remain basically the same.

   Peer Reviewer TWO Comment:

   IBP Comment: IBP chose the “b” response to maintain cross-country comparability. As the MTBP is not published alongside the budget as both the researcher and the peer reviewer indicate it cannot be used as a supporting budget document.
6. In the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation, is more detail than just the aggregate level presented for expenditure estimates that cover a multi-year period (for at least two years beyond the budget year)?

   a. Yes, multi-year expenditure estimates are presented for all individual programs, and for one or more expenditure classification (such as functional, economic, or administrative).
   b. Yes, multi-year estimates are presented for one or more expenditure classification (such as functional, economic, or administrative), but only for some individual programs.
   c. Yes, multi-year estimates are presented, but only for a portion of one or more of the expenditure classifications (such as some functions, or some administrative units) and/or for only some individual programs.
   d. No, multi-year estimates are presented for aggregate expenditure only, or they are not presented at all.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

   Citation and/or comment: Multi-year expenditure estimates are presented only for some ministries; they are not presented by program level or by functional classification.

   Peer Reviewer ONE Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “c.” Given that multi-year expenditure estimates are presented for some ministries (in which publication can this be found?) – the correct answer must be “c” instead of “d.” If we accept the Medium Term Budget Program (MTBP) as a supporting document (see comment on question 5) we can find there multi-year expenditure estimates according to an economic classification.

   Peer Reviewer TWO Comment:

   IBP Comment: IBP editors decided to maintain researchers’ response. See comment above.

7. Does the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation identify the different sources of tax revenue (such as income tax or VAT) for the budget year?

   a. All sources of tax revenue are identified individually.
   b. Sources of tax revenue amounting to at least two-thirds of, but not all, tax revenues are identified individually.
   c. Sources of tax revenue amounting to less than two-thirds of all tax revenues are identified individually.
   d. No sources of tax revenue are identified individually.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

   Citation and/or comment: All the taxes are shown in the Budget law nr. 9339 date 21.12.2004. Some taxes are shown together as “national taxes.” Also this information is published on the MoF site when the budget proposal is sent to Parliament.

   Peer Reviewer ONE Comment:

   Peer Reviewer TWO Comment:
8. Does the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation identify the different sources of non-tax revenue (such as grants, property income, and sales of goods and services) for the budget year?

   a. All sources of non-tax revenue are identified individually.
   b. Sources of non-tax revenue amounting to at least two-thirds of, but not all, non-tax revenues are identified individually.
   c. Sources of non-tax revenues amounting to less than two-thirds of all non-tax revenue are identified individually.
   d. No sources of non-tax revenues are identified individually.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

   Citation and/or comment: Non-tax revenues are identified as a separate item in the fiscal table, but they are not shown in detail. Refer to Budget law nr. 9339, date 21.12.2004, table 8. Also, this information is published on the MoF site when the budget proposal is sent to Parliament.

Peer Reviewer TWO Comment:
9. In the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation, are estimates of the aggregate level of revenue presented for a multi-year period (at least two years beyond the budget year)?

   a. Yes, multi-year estimates of aggregate revenue are presented.
   b. No, multi-year estimates of aggregate revenue are not presented.
   c. Not applicable/other (please comment).

Citation and/or comment: These indicators are presented in the Medium Term Budget Program (MTBP) 2005-2007, 2006-2008 (or multi-year period) and in the budget sent by the executive to the parliament. The MTBP 2005-2007 was prepared during the first six months of the year. There is not a proper link between the MTBP and annual budget, but still there is some forecasting for the level of revenue for a three year time period.

Peer Reviewer ONE Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “a.” Every midyear, the Ministry of Finance publishes a Medium Term Budget Program (MTBP). According to its own definition, the MTBP is a document that is approved by the government each year. It provides a comprehensive analysis of public spending and sets out the key parameters and priorities for the subsequent development of the annual budget. The projections remain basically the same.

Peer Reviewer TWO Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “b.” These data are not presented in executive’s data or supporting budget documents.

IBP Comment: See comment to question 5.
10. In the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation, is more detail than just the aggregate level presented for revenue estimates that cover a multi-year period (for at least two years beyond the budget year)?

   a. Yes, multi-year revenue estimates are presented for individual sources of revenue, and by revenue classification (such as tax and non-tax).
   b. Yes, multi-year estimates are presented by revenue classification (such as tax and non-tax), but only for some individual sources of revenue.
   c. Yes, multi-year estimates are presented, but only for some individual sources of revenue.
   d. No, multi-year estimates are presented for aggregate revenue only, or they are not presented at all.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

   Citation and/or comment: The multi-year revenues are presented in aggregate level.

Peer Reviewer ONE Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “a.” The table on page 10 of Paketa Fiskale 2005.pdf shows the projections for all kinds of sources and it provides an aggregate of tax revenue besides the total aggregate (similar info can be found in the MTBP document).

Peer Reviewer TWO Comment:

IBP Comment: IBP editors decided to maintain researcher’s response. See comment to question 1.

11. Does the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation present data on the total government debt outstanding for the budget year?

   a. Yes, the data reflect the outstanding debt both at the start of the budget year and at the end of the budget year (and thereby reflect the net borrowing requirement of the budget).
   b. Yes, the data reflect the outstanding debt at the end of the budget year.
   c. Yes, the data reflect the outstanding debt at the start of the budget year.
   d. No, data on the outstanding debt are not presented.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

   Citation and/or comment: The total outstanding government debt is subject of the budget law 2005. The net borrowing is a requirement of the budget. See article 15 of the Budget law nr 9339 date 21.12.2004. Also this information is published on the MoF site when the budget proposal is sent to Parliament.

Peer Reviewer ONE Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “d.” The researcher uses enacted budget data. No such information in document Paketa Fiskale 2005.pdf or the MTBP document.

14. Does the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation present the macroeconomic forecast upon which the budget projections are based?

- a. Yes, an extensive discussion of the macroeconomic forecast is presented, and key assumptions (such as inflation, real GDP growth, unemployment rate, and interest rates) are stated explicitly.
- b. Yes, the macroeconomic forecast is discussed and most of the key assumptions are stated explicitly, but some details are excluded.
- c. Yes, there is some discussion of the macroeconomic forecast (and/or the presentation of key assumptions), but it lacks important details.
- d. No, information related to the macroeconomic forecast is not presented.

Citation and/or comment: The forecast of macroeconomic situation is presented with some information on sector levels, but it is not presented as an integrated analysis, covering assumptions, models, and other information. Refer to the Budget Report sent to Parliament and published on: www.minfin.gov.al in the Budget section.

15. Does the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation show the impact of different macroeconomic assumptions (i.e., sensitivity analysis) on the budget (including expenditures, revenues, and debt)?

- b. Yes, information is presented, highlighting the impact of the major macroeconomic assumptions, but some details are excluded.

Citation and/or comment: The budget process in Albania is still input based, not output based. Therefore, the budget does not highlight the link between policy proposals and expenditures, although the MTBP process allows the budget to be prepared according to policy goals. Citation and/or comment: It has been always a critique of the Ministry of Finance that they do not have a proper unit to deal with fiscal policies. New fiscal policies are not accompanied with analyses that reveal the potential impact on the revenue side.

Peer Reviewer ONE Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “c.” The final table in the fiscal package 2005 document gives a crude estimate.

46. Does the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation identify all earmarked revenues?

   a. All earmarked revenues are identified individually.
   b. At least two-thirds of, but not all, earmarked revenues are identified individually.
   c. Less than two-thirds of earmarked revenues are identified individually.
   d. No earmarked revenues are identified individually.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

Citation and/or comment: There was only one example of earmarked revenue, the “Majko” tax on vehicles to support the financing of a main highway. It was discontinued in 2003.

Peer Reviewer TWO Comment:

47. What percentage of expenditure in the budget year is dedicated to spending on secret items relating to, for instance, national security and military intelligence?

   a. One percent or less of expenditure is dedicated to secret items.
   b. Three percent or less, but more than one percent, of expenditure is dedicated to secret items.
   c. Eight percent or less, but more than three percent, of expenditure is dedicated to secret items.
   d. More than eight percent of expenditure is dedicated to secret items, or the percentage is not available to the public.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

Citation and/or comment:

The researcher’s response to this question was “a.” Less that 1% of expenditure is used by the Ministry of Defense, Ministry of Public Order and the National Security Service. This information is contained in supporting documents.

Peer Reviewer ONE Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “d.” Can’t find that in the MTBP.

Peer Reviewer TWO Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “c” or “a.” According to my calculations the ratio of expenses related to Ministry of Defense (9 billion leks), and National Security Service (Intelligence Service - adding 1.5 billion leks) to Total Expenditures of 200 billion leks without social security funds, or 255 billion leks with social security funds. In such case the ratio varies from to 4.2% - 5.25%. If this question does not include all the activities and expenses of Ministry of Defense, but only secret items, then the answer is “a.”

IBP Comment: IBP chose the response “d” The researcher’ and peer reviewers’ comments reveal that this percentage is not known to the public. Furthermore, the question refers to secret expenditures, not all the expenditures of the Ministry of Defense, Ministry of Public Order and the National Security Service.

Citation and/or comment: Although some information linking the budget with policy goals is presented, the budget process in Albania still remains input-based rather than output-based. The fact that the budget is input based implies that it is derived from historical data rather than on policy goals although the MTBP process allows the budget to be prepared according to policy goals.

Peer Reviewer TWO Comment:
49. Does the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation explain how the proposed budget is linked to government’s stated policy goals for a multi-year period (for at least two years beyond the budget year)?

   a. Yes, extensive information on the link between the budget and the government’s stated policy goals over a multi-year period is presented, including both a narrative discussion and quantitative estimates.
   b. Yes, information is presented, highlighting the major policy goals, but some details are excluded.
   c. Yes, some information is presented, but it lacks important details.
   d. No, information on the link between the budget and the government’s stated policy goals over a multi-year period is not presented.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

   Citation and/or comment: Refer to the comment of question 48. There is no real long-term policy planning linked to the budget. In the last 4 years, there has been an attempt to link the National Strategy for Social Economic Development to the multi-year estimations; however, the focus remains on the annual budget.

   Peer Reviewer ONE Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “c.” The MTBP document has some scarce information on this.

   Peer Reviewer TWO Comment: IBP Comment: IBP editors decided to maintain researcher’s response. See comment to question 5.

50. Does the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation present non-financial data, such as the number of beneficiaries, for expenditure programs?

   a. Non-financial data are presented for all programs.
   b. Non-financial data are presented for programs representing at least two-thirds of, but not all, expenditures.
   c. Non-financial data are presented for programs representing less than two-thirds of expenditure.
   d. No non-financial data are presented.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

   Citation and/or comment: An effort was made in 2005 during the preparation of the Medium Term Budget Program 2006-2008, but this was done only for four ministries.

   Peer Reviewer ONE Comment: IBP Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “c.” Supportive documents of BY 2006 show several expenditure programs with non-financial data; such as the number of beneficiaries, increases or decreases in the number of beneficiaries, regions especially for social security, health care and medicaments reimbursements.

   IBP Comment: IBP editors decided to maintain researcher’s response. It is not clear to which supporting budget documents the peer reviewer referred.
51. Are the non-financial data presented useful for assessing how an expenditure program is performing?

- The non-financial data are very useful for assessing program performance.
- The non-financial data are mostly useful for assessing program performance.
- The non-financial data are somewhat useful for assessing program performance.
- No non-financial data are provided or they are not useful for assessing program performance.
- Not applicable/other (please comment).

Citation and/or comment: As the budget in Albania is presented by program, the non-financial data for assessing program performance does not exist in budget documents; it suffers from the input budget system. The procedures of MTBP 2006-2008 are the initial steps to remedy the situation.

Peer Reviewer ONE Comment:

Peer Reviewer TWO Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “c.” The same comment of Question 50.

IBP Comment: IBP editors decided to maintain researcher’s response. It is not clear to which supporting budget documents the peer reviewer referred.

52. Does the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation contain performance indicators for expenditure programs?

- Performance indicators are presented for all programs.
- Performance indicators are presented for programs representing at least two-thirds of, but not all, expenditures.
- Performance indicators are presented for programs representing less than two-thirds of expenditures.
- No performance indicators are presented.
- Not applicable/other (please comment).

Citation and/or comment: The budget does not operate on an output basis; therefore performance indicators are not evaluated. Also the Treasury information is not computerized and the information is in aggregate level.

Peer Reviewer ONE Comment:

Peer Reviewer TWO Comment:
53. Are the performance indicators sufficiently well designed, such that one can assess whether there has been progress toward meeting policy goals?

   a. All performance indicators are well designed.
   b. Most performance indicators are well designed.
   c. Some performance indicators are well designed, but most are not.
   d. No programs have performance indicators, or they are not well designed.

55. Does the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation present information on policies (both proposals and existing commitments) in at least the budget year that are intended to benefit directly the country’s most impoverished populations?

   b. Yes, information is presented, highlighting the impact of key policies intended to alleviate poverty, but some details are excluded.
   c. Yes, some information is presented, but it lacks important details.

65. Are citizens able in practice to obtain financial information on expenditures for individual programs in a format that is more highly disaggregated than that which appears in the executive’s budget proposal if they request it (for example, from a ministry or agency)?

   a. In practice, highly disaggregated information is available to the public for all programs except those considered related to national security or military intelligence.
   b. In practice, highly disaggregated information is available to the public for programs representing at least two-thirds of, but not all, expenditures.
   c. In practice, highly disaggregated information is available to the public for programs representing less than two-thirds of expenditures.

Citation and/or comment: According to the law “The Right of Information for Public Documents” no. 8503, dated 30.06.1999, every person has the right to ask for information. There is information more disaggregated than those published in the budget proposal. However, since Albania does not have a computerized treasury system, the information available is not very detailed.

Citation and/or comment: The expenditures for the agencies that deal with secret activities are shown in the tables of budget law, but the details about expenditures in secret activities (like witness protection, number of employees of intelligence services) are not shown. The legislature (the member of commission for defense and security) has the right to receive all information related to the secret activities. The members of the Defense legislative committee has the legal right to obtain that information, which they get in practice.

97. Does the executive seek input from the legislature when the executive shifts funds between administrative units (except when the amounts are below a certain level, as specified in law or regulation)?

- a. Yes, the executive seeks approval from the legislature before shifting funds between administrative units.
- b. Yes, the executive advises the legislature before shifting funds, giving the legislature an opportunity to block or modify the proposed adjustment.
- c. Yes, the executive seeks legislative approval, but only after the shift of funds has been implemented.
- d. No, the executive shifts funds between administrative units without seeking input from the legislature.
- e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

Citation and/or comment: The Law no. 9339, dated December 21\textsuperscript{st}, 2004 on “Budget Law for 2005,” grants the executive the ability to shift funds within a 5% limit among ministries and among programs for the public investment funds. Any change above that limit requires legislative approval. Taking into consideration that in the 2005 enacted budget, such shift of funds were approved three days before year end, it appears that the executive can easily find a way to shift funds.

Peer Reviewer ONE Comment:

Peer Reviewer TWO Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “d.” Maybe I’m wrong, but publicly I have not seen any legislature round to consider shifting funds as parliament activity. Checking thoroughly the legislature laws for 2005, I noticed only one change of the approved figures. The above mentioned law (The Law no. 9339, date 21 December 2004 on “Budget Law for 2005”) is amended only once by Law No. 9463, date 27.12.2005, for some changes on Law 9339. So, it is amended three days before end year and it comprises of all the shifted funds. The approval is just formal, to fulfill the law requirements.

IBP Comment: IBP editors maintained the researcher’s response. Both the researcher and the peer reviewer’s comments imply that there is an approval of the shifting of funds after they were shifted.
98. During the past year, have there been credible reported instances in which the procurement of goods and services has not followed an open and competitive process in practice?

   a. There were no credible reported instances of procurement failing to follow an open and competitive process in practice during the past year.
   b. The procurement of goods and services frequently followed an open and competitive process in practice, but there were some reported instances of irregularities.
   c. The procurement of goods and service followed an open and competitive process in many instances, but there were significant reported examples of irregularities.
   d. No, the procurement process was not open and competitive in practice.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

   Citation and/or comment: A considerable amount of procurement processes are actually reported to the High Court for alleged violations. Most of procurement processes follow a competitive process, but significant examples of irregularities were found.

   Peer Reviewer ONE Comment:

   Peer Reviewer TWO Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “d.” The procurement process is full of irregularities, despite of the law. Most of procurement processes are conducted formally, but with predetermined winners.

   IBP Comment: The researcher modified the response to this question from “b” to ‘c” following the peer reviewer’s comments.

99. When does the legislature typically approve supplemental budgets?

   a. Supplemental budgets are approved before the funds are expended, or the executive rarely proposes a supplemental budget (please specify).
   b. Supplemental budgets are approved after the funds are expended, or the executive implements supplemental budgets without ever receiving approval from the legislature (please specify).
   c. Not applicable/other (please comment).

   Citation and/or comment: The ministries/institutions cannot spend over the limit decided by the budget law. If the government has more money than has been approved by the legislature, in order to spend this money the legislature should approve a supplementary budget. The executive spends the money as approved by the legislature (for instance the supplementary budget in 2004, where 13 billion leke were earned by the privatization of a savings bank).

   Peer Reviewer ONE Comment:

   Peer Reviewer TWO Comment:
100. In most years, how large are supplemental budget requests relative to the size of the original budget?

   a. Supplemental budgets are generally equal to 2 percent or less of the original budget.
   b. Supplemental budgets are generally equal to more than 2 percent, but less than 5 percent, of the original budget.
   c. Supplemental budget are generally equal to more than 5 percent, but less than 10 percent, of the original budget.
   d. Supplemental budget are generally equal to 10 percent or more of the original budget, or insufficient information is available to the public regarding the amount of supplemental budgets.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

   Citation and/or comment: In the supplemental budget of 2004, the difference was within 3.5%. The legislature has power to change it completely. In fact there is no restriction on the size of the supplemental budget.

Peer Reviewer ONE Comment:

Peer Reviewer TWO Comment: Supplemental budgets are usually within 2% of the original budget (2004 is an exception, because MoF had an occasional inflow from the privatization of the largest public bank in Albania. Often, the problem is that many planned expenditures are not spent and MoF has changed the destination of the planned expenditures.

101. When does the legislature approve the expenditure of contingency funds or other funds for which no specific purpose was identified in the budget?

   a. Expenditures are approved before the funds are expended, or contingency funds or other funds with no specific purposes are not included in the budget.
   b. Expenditures are approved after the funds are expended, but before the end of the fiscal year.
   c. Expenditures are approved after the end of the fiscal year, for example in the next budget.
   d. Such expenditure takes place without legislative approval.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

   Citation and/or comment: Contingency funds are part of the budget law and are approved with it. The executive has the power to expend these funds without the permission of the legislature. Refer to the Organic Budget Law no. 8379 dated July 29th, 1998 (Chapter II, article 21). “The State Budget will include a reserve fund to meet unforeseen expenditures. This cannot be more than 3 percent of total appropriations. Expenditures may only be made from this reserve after proposal by the Minister of Finance and approval by the Council of Ministers. The Minister of Finance shall periodically report to Parliament on details of expenditures from the reserve.”

Year-End Report and the Supreme Audit Institution

102. How long after the end of the budget year does the executive release to the public a year-end report or another document that discusses the budget’s actual outcome for the year?

   a. Reports are released six months or less after the end of the fiscal year.
   b. Reports are released 12 months or less (but more than six months) after the end of the fiscal year.
   c. Reports are released more than 12 months after the end of the fiscal year.
   d. The executive does not release a year-end report.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

Citation and/or comment: According to the Organic Budget Law no. 8379 dated July 29th, 1998, article 50, the Minister of Finance shall present the accounts of the actual revenues and expenditures of the State Budget to the Council of Ministers and Parliament for examination and approval by the end of June. This information is not delivered to the public, and there does not exist any obligation that the information should be released to the public. However, the Finance Ministry published a report on the budget year 2004 in May 2005 (Raporti Vjetor 2004). This has been the first time that an annual report is published.

Peer Reviewer ONE Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “a.” Actually the Finance Ministry published a report on the budget year 2004 in May 2005 (Raporti vjetor 2004.pdf)

Peer Reviewer TWO Comment:

IBP Comment: The researcher has changed the response to this question from “d” to “b” following the peer reviewer’s comments.
103. In the year-end report, or another document released to the public by the executive (please specify below), have the data on the actual outcomes been audited?

a. Yes, all data on actual outcomes have been audited.
b. At least two-thirds, but not all, of the data on actual outcomes have been audited.
c. Less than two-thirds of the data on actual outcomes have been audited.
d. None of the data on actual outcomes has been audited, or a year-end report is not released.
e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

Citation and/or comment:

The Researcher’s response to this question was ‘e.” The data is audited by the Supreme State Audit (SAI). The budget process (drafting and implementation) must end when the Parliament accepts the report on the state budget implementation and the report from the SAI. The SAI is the highest institution of economic and financial control and is an independent institution. In the case of the state budget monitoring, it calculates the scale in which the expenditures of the budget resources match with the amounts planned and approved. The SAI reports to the Assembly once a year on the results of the audit. However, the data used in the year-end report (Annual Report 2004) does not indicate whether the data had been audited or not. The data used for the Annual Report is produced by the executive (treasury system). Information relating to this is contained in supporting documents.

Peer Reviewer ONE Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “e.” From the Raporti vjetor 2004.pdf document, this is not clear.

Peer Reviewer TWO Comment:

IBP Comment: IBP editors chose the response “d.” The researcher’s comment indicates that the data contained in this report are produced by the Treasury System without being subjected to external audited before being introduced in this report.

Citation and/or comment: A specific chapter in the Organic Budget Law no. 8379, dated July 29th, 1998 (Chapter on Execution and Monitoring) is dedicated to the SAI. Under its legal provisions, the executive cannot restrain the SAI’s budget. The budget proposal is prepared by the MoF, but its budget is approved by the Legislature. The SAI has the right to discuss its budget during the budget approval in Parliament and the Legislature has the right to decide on its budget.

Peer Reviewer ONE Comment:

Peer Reviewer TWO Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “b.” The budget of SAI is determined by the executive (Ministry of Finance). If SAI has objections, it may oppose the figures, and legislature has the power to decide. During these years Albania has had some experiences, where independent institutions are opposed to the budget allocations of MoF.

IBP Comment: After consultation with the researcher, IBP editors maintained the researcher’s response.
119. Does a committee of the legislature view and scrutinize the audit reports?

a. Yes, all audit reports are scrutinized.
b. Yes, most audit reports are scrutinized.
c. Yes, some audit reports are scrutinized.
d. No, audit reports are not scrutinized.
e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

Citation and/or comment: The audit reports are presented to the Legislature and discussed by them. According the Supreme State Audit site, it is written: “The Supreme State Audit for the 1998-2005 years was reported twice per year to the Parliament.” In October, the report is submitted “on implementation of the actual state budget and opinion of SAI for expenditure of the financial year” and in March, the report "on activity of Supreme State Audit" is submitted. It is important to say that the Legislature does not have a special structure to scrutinize the audit reports. Also, “Prior to Assembly approval of the final report on the expenditures of the previous fiscal year, SAI must present a report on the Implementation of the Federal Budget with its recommendations for the Council of Ministries. Information regarding the result of financial controls must be furnished at the Assembly’s request in a timely manner. Also, SAI must present a yearly report on its activities to the Assembly. (article 164, organic law of SAI)”

b. Yes, the executive reports publicly on most audit findings.
c. Yes, the executive reports publicly on some audit findings.

Citation and/or comment: The relevant committees in parliament receive audit reports related to national security and other secret programs. However, information on certain very secret items is only shared with members of the National Defense Committee chaired by the President of Albania. The level of secret programs is very low, and there are authorized persons within SAI to deal with these programs.
