Peer Reviewer ONE Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be "d." Websites of various ministries and agencies contain non-financial information which is available to the public. Citizens may also request non-financial information by post or e-mail, however, in practice, a response is rarely provided. For example, the Ministry of Finance has some non-financial information related to expenditures for individual programs.

The researcher queried several colleagues outside the Institute regarding their views related to the appropriate answer to this question, and their answers ranged from "a" to "d", with "d" occurring most frequently. Based on this additional research and consultation, the researcher amended the response to "d."
