   Peer Reviewer ONE Comment:

   Peer Reviewer TWO Comment:
5. In the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation, are estimates of the aggregate level of expenditure presented for a multi-year period (at least two years beyond the budget year)?

   a. Yes, multi-year estimates of aggregate expenditure are presented.
   b. No, multi-year estimates of aggregate expenditure are not presented.
   c. Not applicable/other (please comment).

Citation and/or comment:

The researcher marked this answer as “a.” Estimates of the aggregate level of expenditure presented for a multi-year period (at least two years beyond the budget year) are presented in Budget Memorandum. (p. 8), at: http://www.vlada.si/index.php?vie=cnt&gr1=dloVld&gr2=vlaPro (in Slovenian).

Researcher Response: The Draft Budget Memorandum is presented in May, while the Budget Memorandum and the Executive’s Budget Proposal are presented in September - the Executive’s Budget Proposal is based on the Budget Memorandum. Thus, we consider answer “a” appropriate.

Peer Reviewer ONE Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “b.” The Budget Memorandum includes estimates of aggregate level of expenditure just for one year beyond the budget year. If two years beyond the budget year is the minimum, then the appropriate answer should be “b.”

Peer Reviewer TWO Comment: The answer is appropriate. Slovenia adopts a 2-year budget with possible revisions to the second year should the economic assumptions change. This was done to avoid past election-year failures to adopt a budget before establishment of the new Parliament, as well as to improve certainty of investment funding for budget users. During the development of the new budget approach, the Swedish model was used, although Slovenia did not go as far as Sweden. The multi-year projections are for a period of 4 years.

IBP Comment: The Slovenia budget system is unique, and differs from systems in other OECD countries. The Slovenian system requires formulation and submission for parliamentary approval of a budget for the upcoming year, as well as a fully-detailed budget for the next year. This arrangement differs in one important respect from the fixed expenditure frameworks found in some countries, such as the UK. In the Slovenian system, the total figures for expenditures, revenues and debt for the second year are not fixed, and the executive may submit a proposal for changes to Parliament three months in advance of the budget year in question if they believe that significant alterations in the economic assumptions make this necessary.
6. In the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation, is more detail than just the aggregate level presented for expenditure estimates that cover a multi-year period (for at least two years beyond the budget year)?

   a. Yes, multi-year expenditure estimates are presented for all individual programs, and for one or more expenditure classification (such as functional, economic, or administrative).
   b. Yes, multi-year estimates are presented for one or more expenditure classification (such as functional, economic, or administrative), but only for some individual programs.
   c. Yes, multi-year estimates are presented, but only for a portion of one or more of the expenditure classifications (such as some functions, or some administrative units) and/or for only some individual programs.
   d. No, multi-year estimates are presented for aggregate expenditure only, or they are not presented at all.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

   Citation and/or comment: More detailed than just the aggregate level for expenditures are presented (Obrazložitev splošnega dela proračuna, Načrt razvojnih programov, p. 37). Available at: http://www.gov.si/mf/slov/proracun/priprava_proracuna.htm

   b. Sources of tax revenue amounting to at least two-thirds of, but not all, tax revenues are identified individually.
   c. Sources of tax revenue amounting to less than two-thirds of all tax revenues are identified individually.

8. Does the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation identify the different sources of non-tax revenue (such as grants, property income, and sales of goods and services) for the budget year?

   a. All sources of non-tax revenue are identified individually.
   b. Sources of non-tax revenue amounting to at least two-thirds of, but not all, non-tax revenues are identified individually.
   c. Sources of non-tax revenues amounting to less than two-thirds of all non-tax revenue are identified individually.
   d. No sources of non-tax revenues are identified individually.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

   Citation and/or comment: Different sources of non-tax revenue (such as income tax or VAT) for the budget year are presented (Obrazložitev splošnega dela proračuna, p. 4). Peer Reviewer ONE Comment:

Peer Reviewer TWO Comment: Slovenia inherited a system of direct and indirect budget users. Revenues collected by direct budget users are fully presented in the budget documents. Revenues collected by indirect budget users such as schools, hospitals, universities, and autonomous institutions/agencies, however, are not reflected in the budget documents. Revenues collected by local governments are reflected in those budgets with aggregate estimates shown in the central government budget documents.

9. In the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation, are estimates of the aggregate level of revenue presented for a multi-year period (at least two years beyond the budget year)?

   a. Yes, multi-year estimates of aggregate revenue are presented.
   b. No, multi-year estimates of aggregate revenue are not presented.
   c. Not applicable/other (please comment).

   Citation and/or comment: Estimates of the aggregate level of revenue presented for a multi-year period (at least two years beyond the budget year) are presented in the Budget Memorandum. (p. 8). Available at: http://www.vlada.si/index.php?vie=cnt&gr1=dloVld&gr2=vlaPro (in Slovenian)

Peer Reviewer ONE Comment:

Peer Reviewer TWO Comment: See my comment to question 5.

IBP Comment: See comment to question 5.
10. In the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation, is more detail than just the aggregate level presented for revenue estimates that cover a multi-year period (for at least two years beyond the budget year)?

   a. Yes, multi-year revenue estimates are presented for individual sources of revenue, and by revenue classification (such as tax and non-tax).
   b. Yes, multi-year estimates are presented by revenue classification (such as tax and non-tax), but only for some individual sources of revenue.
   c. Yes, multi-year estimates are presented, but only for some individual sources of revenue.
   d. No, multi-year estimates are presented for aggregate revenue only, or they are not presented at all.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

   Citation and/or comment: More detailed estimates are provided by the Ministry of Finance for internal use. The Institute of Macroeconomic Analysis and Development (IMAD), which is part of the government, is producing several revenue forecasts, but we do not include them among “supporting budget documentation” since the Ministry of Finance prognoses and the Budget Memorandum already refers to these forecasts.

Peer Reviewer ONE Comment:

Peer Reviewer TWO Comment:

11. Does the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation present data on the total government debt outstanding for the budget year?

   a. Yes, the data reflect the outstanding debt both at the start of the budget year and at the end of the budget year (and thereby reflect the net borrowing requirement of the budget).
   b. Yes, the data reflect the outstanding debt at the end of the budget year.
   c. Yes, the data reflect the outstanding debt at the start of the budget year.
   d. No, data on the outstanding debt are not presented.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

   Citation and/or comment: Data on the total government debt outstanding for the budget year (Debt of the direct users of the government budget of the Republic of Slovenia) are presented at: http://www.gov.si/mf/angl/tekgib/avl_dolg.htm (in English).

Peer Reviewer ONE Comment:

Peer Reviewer TWO Comment: Total outstanding debt is presented in the Budget Memorandum, so “a” is correct.

IBP Comment: The debt of the direct users of the government budget of the Republic of Slovenia is continuously updated and is not directly linked to the budget proposal. However, we considered information which is presented in “Debt of the direct users of the government budget of the Republic of Slovenia” appropriate to answer a) in questions 11-13.
12. Does the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation present interest payments on the debt for the budget year?

   a. Yes, interest payments on the debt are presented.
   b. No, interest payments on the debt are not presented.
   c. Not applicable/other (please comment).

Citation and/or comment: Data on the total interest payment outstanding for the budget year (Debt of the direct users of the government budget of the Republic of Slovenia - projected debt service) are presented at: http://www.gov.si/mf/angl/tekgib/avl_dolg.htm (in English).

Data on interest payment for the budget year are also presented (Obrazložitev splošnega dela proračuna, p. 12) at: http://www.gov.si/mf/slov/proracun/priprava_proracuna.htm (Executive’s Budget Proposal / Predlog proračuna - in Slovenian).

Peer Reviewer ONE Comment:

Peer Reviewer TWO Comment: Interest payments are detailed in the budget.

13. Does the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation present information related to the composition of government debt (such as interest rates on the debt, maturity profile of the debt, currency denomination of the debt, or whether it is domestic and external debt) for the budget year?

   a. Yes, extensive information related to the composition of government debt is presented.
   b. Yes, key additional information is presented, but some details are excluded.
   c. Yes, some additional information is presented, but it lacks important details.
   d. No, additional information related to the composition of government debt is not presented.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

Citation and/or comment: Data on the composition of government debt are presented (Debt of the direct users of the government budget of the Republic of Slovenia) at: http://www.gov.si/mf/angl/tekgib/avl_dolg.htm (in English).

Peer Reviewer ONE Comment:

Peer Reviewer TWO Comment: The information on debt composition is fully available to parliamentarians (and the public through the MoF website) during the discussion of the state budget, and is provided in annexes to the Budget.
14. Does the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation present the macroeconomic forecast upon which the budget projections are based?

   a. Yes, an extensive discussion of the macroeconomic forecast is presented, and key assumptions (such as inflation, real GDP growth, unemployment rate, and interest rates) are stated explicitly.
   b. Yes, the macroeconomic forecast is discussed and most of the key assumptions are stated explicitly, but some details are excluded.
   c. Yes, there is some discussion of the macroeconomic forecast (and/or the presentation of key assumptions), but it lacks important details.
   d. No, information related to the macroeconomic forecast is not presented.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

   Citation and/or comment: The macroeconomic forecasts upon which the budget projections are based are presented in the Budget Memorandum. (p. 6), at: http://www.vlada.si/index.php?vie=cnt&gr1=dloVld&gr2=vlaPro (in Slovenian)

Peer Reviewer ONE Comment:

Peer Reviewer TWO Comment:

15. Does the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation show the impact of different macroeconomic assumptions (i.e., sensitivity analysis) on the budget (including expenditures, revenues, and debt)?

   a. Yes, extensive information on the impact of macroeconomic assumptions on the budget is presented, including both a narrative discussion and quantitative estimates.
   b. Yes, information is presented, highlighting the impact of the major macroeconomic assumptions, but some details are excluded.
   c. Yes, some information is presented, but it lacks important details.
   d. No, information on the impact of different macroeconomic assumptions on the budget is not presented.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

   Citation and/or comment: The Budget Memorandum includes a short summary of different macroeconomic scenarios - thus the answer can be “b.”

Peer Reviewer ONE Comment:

Peer Reviewer TWO Comment: The impact of several scenarios of macroeconomic assumptions is generated internally in the Ministry of Finance when preparing the Budget Memorandum. The Memorandum itself discusses the chosen scenario in detail, although it may not fully satisfy the intent of the question, i.e. presentation of different macro-economic assumptions. As noted below, some analysis in this area is also obligatory for European Union (EU). “b” is appropriate.

IBP Comment: A much more comprehensive sensitivity analysis is included in the document “Convergence program.” This document is prepared on an annual basis for the EU Commission. We did not include this document among Budget Documentations, otherwise the answer would be “a.”
16. Does the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation present information for at least the budget year that shows how policy proposals in the budget, as distinct from existing policies, affect expenditures?

   a. Yes, extensive information on the impact of policy proposals on expenditures is presented, including both a narrative discussion and quantitative estimates.
   b. Yes, information is presented, highlighting the impact of key policy proposals on expenditures, but some details are excluded.
   c. Yes, some information is presented, but it lacks important details.
   d. No, information on the impact of policy proposals on expenditures is not presented.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

   Citation and/or comment: Information that shows how policy proposals in the budget, as distinct from existing policies, affect expenditure are presented for different policy areas at (Obrazložitev splošnega dela proračuna):
   http://www.gov.si/mf/slov/proracun/priprava_proracuna.htm (Executive’s Budget Proposal / Predlog proračuna - in Slovenian)

   Peer Reviewer ONE Comment:

   Peer Reviewer TWO Comment: While there is no systematic separation of existing versus new policies, the program structure of the Budget, and the supporting explanatory documents provided, do provide highlights of key policy decisions. As more can still be done in this respect, I agree with the “b” score.
17. Does the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation present information for at least the budget year that shows how policy proposals in the budget, as distinct from existing policies, affect revenues?

   a. Yes, extensive information on the impact of policy proposals on revenues is presented, including both a narrative discussion and quantitative estimates.
   b. Yes, information is presented, highlighting the impact of key policy proposals on revenues, but some details are excluded.
   c. Yes, some information is presented, but it lacks important details.
   d. No, information on the impact of policy proposals on revenues is not presented.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

   Citation and/or comment:

   The researcher’s response to this question was “e.” This information is contained in supporting documents. Precise information about changes in tax revenues are presented in case of any changes in taxes (tax codes), but this is not part of the budget process. From this point of view, we consider answer “e” appropriate.

   Peer Reviewer ONE Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “d.” As mentioned in the comment, changes in tax revenues are presented in case of any changes but this is not part of the budget process.

   Peer Reviewer TWO Comment: The impact on revenue of both macro-economic and fiscal decisions made during budget preparation is considered internally, and some discussion is presented when warranted in the Budget Memorandum. A “b” score may be more appropriate here.

   IBP Comment: IBP editors choose response “d” for this question, given that information on new fiscal policies, while publicly available, is not included in the budget documents.

22. In the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation, how many months of actual data are reflected in the expenditure estimates of the year prior to the budget year (BY-1)?

   a. All BY-1 estimates have been updated from the original enacted levels to reflect six or more months of actual expenditure.
   b. All BY-1 estimates have been updated from the original enacted levels, but reflect less than six months of actual expenditure.
   c. Some BY-1 estimates have been updated from the original enacted levels to reflect actual expenditure.
   d. The BY-1 estimates have not been updated from the original enacted levels, or no BY-1 estimates are presented.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

   Citation and/or comment: The executive’s Budged Proposal is submitted in September and its data are based on actual expenditures for six or more months.

   Peer Reviewer ONE Comment:

   Peer Reviewer TWO Comment: See answer to question 18.
23. In the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation, are estimates of the aggregate level of expenditure presented for years that precede the budget year by more than one year (that is, BY-2 and prior years)?

   a. Yes, such prior-year estimates of aggregate expenditure are presented.
   b. No, such prior-year estimates of aggregate expenditure are not presented.
   c. Not applicable/other (please comment).

Citation and/or comment:

The researcher’s response to this question was “c.” This information is contained in supporting documents. Such prior-year aggregate expenditures are not presented in the Executive Budget or Supporting Budget Documentation as they are defined for the purpose of this section. But they are presented for example in the Bulletin of Government Finance and completely available to the public. They cover actual data with two-month lags for the period back to 1992.

Peer Reviewer ONE Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “b.” I agree with the researcher’s comment but the Bulletin of Government Finance is not part of budget documentation. I suggest that IBP decide what is more appropriate for the purpose of the research.

Peer Reviewer TWO Comment: The annual accounts for BY-2 are presented to Parliament BEFORE the Budget is submitted, so that they may be considered when discussing the Budget. This information is not included in the detailed budget presentation. Aggregate information for BY-2 is provided in the Budget Memorandum but not for prior years. Technically this question should have a “b” score, given the way the question is formulated. However, as noted in the citation/comment above, the Bulletin is readily available and presents multi-year historical data, so these actuals can be said to exist.

IBP Comment: IBP editors chose response “b” here in light of both the researcher’s and peer reviewers’ comments that specify that this information, while publicly available, is not included in the budget documents. The government’s budget proposal should present to the public a comprehensive, definitive picture of its fiscal position. Although much information that should appear in a country’s budget might also be reported by governments elsewhere, the government should provide to the public a unified presentation of their budgets each year in their annual proposals, which should include prior-year information to facilitate comparisons.
24. In the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation, is more detail than just the aggregate level presented for expenditure estimates that cover years preceding the budget year by more than one year (that is, BY-2 and prior years)?

   a. Yes, such prior-year expenditure estimates are presented for all individual programs, and for one or more expenditure classification (such as functional, economic, or administrative).
   b. Yes, such prior-year estimates are presented for one or more expenditure classification (such as functional, economic, or administrative), but only for some individual programs.
   c. Yes, such prior-year estimates are presented, but only for a portion of one or more of the expenditure classifications (such as some functions, or some administrative units) and/or for only some individual programs.
   d. No, such prior-year estimates are presented for aggregate expenditure only, or they are not presented at all.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

Citation and/or comment:

The researcher’s response to this question was “c.” This information is contained in supporting documents. Such prior-year detailed expenditures are not presented in the Executive Budget or Supporting Budget Documentation as they are defined for the purposes of this section. But they are presented for example in the Bulletin of Government Finance and completely available to the public. They cover actual data with two-month lags for the period back to 1992.

Peer Reviewer ONE Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “d.” See my comment to question 23.

Peer Reviewer TWO Comment: See my comment to question 23. A “d” score is more accurate, given the question.

IBP Comment: See note to question 23.
25. In the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation, what is the most recent year presented for which all expenditures reflect actual outcomes?

   a. Two years prior to the budget year (BY-2).
   b. Three years prior to the budget year (BY-3).
   c. Before BY-3.
   d. No actual data for all expenditures are presented in the budget or supporting budget documentation.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

Citation and/or comment:

The researcher’s response to this question was “c.” This information is contained in supporting documents. Such prior-year expenditures which reflect actual outcome are not presented in the Executive Budget or Supporting Budget Documentation as they are defined for the purposes of this section. However, they are presented for example in the Bulletin of Government Finance and completely available to the public. They cover actual data with two-month lags for the period back to 1992.

Peer Reviewer ONE Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “d.” See comment to question 23.

Peer Reviewer TWO Comment: Technically the answer should be “d” if the Bulletin is not classified as “supporting budget documentation.” However, as noted in question 23, the annual accounts are presented BEFORE the Budget is submitted. The Ministry of Finance has been reluctant to preempt the publication of actuals in the Budget itself, since BY-2 accounts have generally not been reviewed by Parliament at the time of submission of the Budget to Parliament.

IBP Comment: See note to question 23.

Peer Reviewer TWO Comment: Answer “d” is more correct, even though the information is separately available.

IBP Comment: IBP editors chose the “d” response in order to maintain cross-country consistency: even if this information is available somewhere else, it is not included in the budget documents.

Citation and/or comment:

The researcher’s response to this question was “e.” This information is contained in supporting documents. Information on non-financial assets held by the government is permanently available (and regularly updated) at the web site of the Ministry of Finance at: http://www.gov.si/mf/slov/gl_knj_zakl/prem_bilance.htm (in Slovenian), but this document is published independently from the Executive’s Budget Proposal.

Peer Reviewer ONE Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “d.” See comment to question 23.

Peer Reviewer TWO Comment: Answer “d” is more correct, even though the information is separately available.

IBP Comment: See comment to question 39.

41. Does the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation present information for at least the budget year on expenditure arrears?

<td>e.</td>

Citation and/or comment: Expenditure arrears do not present a significant problem in Slovenia.

Peer Reviewer ONE Comment: Expenditure arrears are converted to debt under Slovene accounting rules and, in the past when there have been arrears, these have appeared under debt service (in fact some of the older paper still on the books of the government are of this nature).
42. Does the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation present information on contingent liabilities (such as government loan guarantees)?

a. Yes, extensive information on contingent liabilities is presented, including both a narrative discussion and quantitative estimates.
b. Yes, information is presented, highlighting key contingent liabilities, but some details are excluded.
c. Yes, some information is presented, but it lacks important details.
d. No, information on contingent liabilities is not presented.

Citation and/or comment:

The researcher’s response to this question was “e.” This information is contained in supporting documents. Information on contingent liabilities including both a narrative discussion and quantitative estimates is permanently available (and regularly updated) at the website of the Ministry of Finance at: http://www.gov.si/mf/slov/sufpd/dolg_porostva.htm (in Slovenian) but this document is published independently to the Executive’s Budget Proposal.

Peer Reviewer ONE Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “d.” See comment to question 23.

Peer Reviewer TWO Comment: Answer “d” is more correct, even though the information is separately available.

IBP Comment: See comment to question 40.

43. Does the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation present information on future liabilities, such as civil service pensions?

a. Yes, extensive information on future liabilities is presented, including both a narrative discussion and quantitative estimates.
b. Yes, information is presented, highlighting key future liabilities, but some details are excluded.
c. Yes, some information is presented, but it lacks important details.
d. No, information on future liabilities is not presented.
e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

Citation and/or comment: Expenditures for future liabilities which are set in law are already included in the budget proposal in relevant budget categories.

Peer Reviewer ONE Comment:

Peer Reviewer TWO Comment: There are two parts to the spending on pensions, both of which are included in the budget, namely the deficit of the Pension Fund (which has been a significant percentage of the total budget), and the obligations under Statutory Pensions which are transferred to the Pension Fund for execution. However, the question relates to future liabilities, which although discussed in the Budget Memorandum, are not always adequately described. A “b” answer may be more appropriate. It should be noted that a similar deficit also exists in the Health Fund.

IBP Comment: IBP editors chose to maintain response “a.”
44. Does the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation provide details on the sources of donor assistance, both financial and in-kind?

   a. All sources of donor assistance are identified individually.
   b. At least two-thirds of, but not all, sources of donor assistance, are identified individually.
   c. Less than two-thirds of sources of donor assistance are identified individually.
   d. No sources of donor assistance are identified individually.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

   Citation and/or comment: Slovenia does not receive much donor assistance; practically the only source of revenue from abroad is the EU budget.

   Peer Reviewer ONE Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “e.” I agree with the researcher comment and therefore I suggest the answer “e.”

   Peer Reviewer TWO Comment:

   IBP Comment: IBP editors choose to maintain response “a.”

45. Does the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation present information for at least the budget year on tax expenditures?

   a. Yes, extensive information on tax expenditures is presented, including both a narrative discussion and quantitative estimates.
   b. Yes, information is presented, highlighting key tax expenditures, but some details are excluded.
   c. Yes, some information is presented, but it lacks important details.
   d. No, information on tax expenditures is not presented.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

   Citation and/or comment: Tax expenditures that represent the amount of lost tax revenues due to exceptions or preferences in the tax code are not presented.

   Peer Reviewer ONE Comment:

   Peer Reviewer TWO Comment: These are covered under State Aid reporting, which is separate from Budget. In general tax exemptions are limited.
46. Does the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation identify all earmarked revenues?

   a. All earmarked revenues are identified individually.
   b. At least two-thirds of, but not all, earmarked revenues are identified individually.
   c. Less than two-thirds of earmarked revenues are identified individually.
   d. No earmarked revenues are identified individually.

   Citation and/or comment:

   The researcher’s response to this question was “a.” This information is contained in supporting documents. Earmarked revenues are not a common type of government revenues in the Republic of Slovenia. The ones that exist (for example social security contribution for unemployment insurance paid to the central government budget) are identified individually among the other budget revenues.

   Peer Reviewer ONE Comment:

   Peer Reviewer TWO Comment: Significant revenues are collected by indirect budget users (schools, hospitals, universities, and autonomous institutions/agencies) and these are not reported in the Budget. They are reported in the general government fiscal accounts, however, which are published in the Bulletin of Public Finance. Depending on the interpretation and coverage intent of the question, the answer may need to be revised.

   IBP Comment: IBP editors chose response “b” in order to reflect the practice of recording such earmarked revenues in the Bulletin of Public Finance (not a budget supporting document).

47. What percentage of expenditure in the budget year is dedicated to spending on secret items relating to, for instance, national security and military intelligence?

   a. One percent or less of expenditure is dedicated to secret items.
   b. Three percent or less, but more than one percent, of expenditure is dedicated to secret items.
   c. Eight percent or less, but more than three percent, of expenditure is dedicated to secret items.
   d. More than eight percent of expenditure is dedicated to secret items, or the percentage is not available to the public.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

Peer Reviewer ONE Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “b.” Ministries and agencies prepare functional categories and goals, but in some cases goals are very general and therefore a narrative discussion is not included.

Peer Reviewer TWO Comment:

IBP Comment: IBP editors chose to maintain response “a.”
49. Does the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation explain how the proposed budget is linked to government’s stated policy goals for a multi-year period (for at least two years beyond the budget year)?

   a. Yes, extensive information on the link between the budget and the government’s stated policy goals over a multi-year period is presented, including both a narrative discussion and quantitative estimates.
   b. Yes, information is presented, highlighting the major policy goals, but some details are excluded.
   c. Yes, some information is presented, but it lacks important details.

- a. The non-financial data are very useful for assessing program performance.
- b. The non-financial data are mostly useful for assessing program performance.
- c. The non-financial data are somewhat useful for assessing program performance.
- d. No non-financial data are provided or they are not useful for assessing program performance.
- e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

Citation and/or comment:

Peer Reviewer ONE Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “b.”
See comment to question 48.

Peer Reviewer TWO Comment: While the adoption of program/performance budgeting has been quite successful in Slovenia, there is still much to be done on ensuring that outputs/outcomes are realistic and relevant, that measurable indicators are established, that they are adequately monitored and reported on, and that they are used to evaluate past performance and determine future funding of budget user proposals. A “b” answer may be more appropriate.

IBP Comment: IBP editors chose to maintain response “a,” after consulting other outside reports.

Peer Reviewer TWO Comment: The technical aspects of the budget preparation process, including the establishments of budgetary envelopes within which budget users need to remain, are made available on the Ministry of Finance website. There are also books that have been written on the Slovene Budget process. A score of “d” may be a bit harsh.

The researcher’s response to this question was “a.” This information is contained in supporting documents. Budget priorities are set by the government and confirmed with Parliament. In this process the government “defends” the budget against the opposition and the opposition parties discuss all aspect of the budget and may make proposals for changes.

Peer Reviewer ONE Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “d.” Extensive consultations are made after the budget proposal is prepared.

Peer Reviewer TWO Comment:

IBP Comment: IBP editors chose response “d” for this question as the budget defense takes place after the budget submission.
71. Does the executive hold consultations with the public as part of its process of determining budget priorities?

   a. Yes, the executive holds extensive consultations with a wide range of constituencies.
   b. Yes, the executive holds consultations with a range of constituencies, but some key constituencies are excluded.
   c. Yes, the executive holds very limited consultations, involving only a few constituencies.
   d. No, the executive does not typically consult with the public as part of the budget preparation process.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

   The researcher’s response to this question was “a.” This information is contained in supporting documents. The government also sets budget priorities by consulting with a wide range of independent professionals, institutions etc. (But this does not mean that the government always accepts theirs suggestions).

   Peer Reviewer ONE Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “d.” See comment to question 70.

72. When does the executive release a pre-budget statement to the public?

   a. The executive releases a pre-budget statement at least four months in advance of the start of the budget year.
   b. The executive releases a pre-budget statement at least two months (but less than four months) in advance of the start of the budget year.
   c. The executive releases a pre-budget statement, but it is released less than two months before the start of the budget year.
   d. The executive does not release a pre-budget statement.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

   Citation and/or comment: The Pre-Budget Statement (Budget Memorandum) for the next year is supposed to be released in April, but sometimes there is a delay.

   Peer Reviewer ONE Comment:

   Peer Reviewer TWO Comment:

   IBP Comment: The government prepares a Draft Budget Memorandum that includes the overall nominal expenditure framework of the general government by May 15th. The Budget Memorandum is submitted alongside the budget documents and proposed amendments of the budget for the upcoming year in September.
73. Does the pre-budget statement describe the government’s macroeconomic and fiscal framework?

a. Yes, an extensive explanation of the government’s fiscal and macroeconomic policy is presented, including both a narrative discussion and quantitative estimates.
b. Yes, an explanation is presented, highlighting key aspects of the fiscal and macroeconomic framework, but some details are excluded.
c. Yes, some explanation is presented, but it lacks important details.
d. No, an explanation is not presented, or the executive does not release to the public a pre-budget statement.

   Peer Reviewer TWO Comment: In principle, all ministries go before the legislative committees for the budget hearings. Some of the hearings are extensive, others more limited, depending on content and interest. “a” may be more appropriate.

   IBP Comment: IBP editors chose to maintain response “b,” as it seems there might be some administrative units left outside the budget hearings.

78. Does a legislative committee (or committees) hold public hearings on the individual budgets of central government administrative units (that is, ministries, departments, and agencies) in which testimony from the public is heard?

79. Do the legislative committees that hold public hearings release reports to the public on these hearings?

a. Yes, the committees release very informative reports, which include all written testimony presented at the hearings.

   a. Yes, the legislature has unlimited authority to amend the budget.
   b. Yes, the legislature has authority to amend the budget, with some limitations.
   c. Yes, the legislature has authority to amend the budget, but its authority is very limited.
   d. No, the legislature does not have any authority to amend the budget.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

   Citation and/or comment: Amendments should not increase budget deficit.

   Peer Reviewer ONE Comment:

   Peer Reviewer TWO Comment: The constraint on not increasing the budget deficit is a very common rule. Within this rule, however, Parliament has a high level of discretion in Slovenia, so “a” may be more appropriate.

   IBP Comment: The Slovenian budget process differs from other countries’ budget process at this stage as well. After the first review of the budget by the National Assembly, the government submits a second draft budget that takes into consideration some of the proposed amendments. The overall budgetary impact of Parliament is small. At the same time, the Parliament has a role in deciding changes to be adopted to approved budgets (see comment to question 5). The government submits its proposed amendments three months prior to the start of the budget year. In 2004, the government however did not submit any amendments to the second year budget ahead of the elections.
83. What is the most detail provided in the appropriation (expenditure budget) approved by the legislature?

- a. The approved budget includes program-level detail.

101. When does the legislature approve the expenditure of contingency funds or other funds for which no specific purpose was identified in the budget?

a. Expenditures are approved before the funds are expended, or contingency funds or other funds with no specific purposes are not included in the budget.
b. Expenditures are approved after the funds are expended, but before the end of the fiscal year.
c. Expenditures are approved after the end of the fiscal year, for example in the next budget.
d. Such expenditure takes place without legislative approval.
e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

The researcher’s response to this question was “a.” This information is contained in supporting documents.

Peer Reviewer ONE Comment:

Peer Reviewer TWO Comment: Contingency funds are of two types, namely an emergency fund to cope with disasters (e.g. floods) which can be spent and then reported to Parliament under the law, and a budget contingency reserve which can be spent by decision of the government, which then must report its use to parliament by law. The Ministry of Finance keeps the chairperson of the Finance Committee informed at the time of important uses of contingency funds. Answer “b” is more appropriate. Answer “a” is unrealistic for contingency funds.

IBP Comment: Based on information provided by the peer reviewer and contained in the Budgeting in Slovenia article, IBP editors chose response “a” as more accurately describing the situation in Slovenia.

Peer Reviewer ONE Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “c.” Reports from different administrative units differ, but in most cases extensive explanation of the difference between the original estimates and the actual outcome are not presented. Usually units copy the goals which were put in the proposed budget. The government therefore established a special group of professionals to overcome this problem and implement performance budgeting as far as possible.

Peer Reviewer ONE Comment: The executive informs the public about the report. The report is not put on a website but it could be received upon request. The report should also be confirmed by Parliament. For an example of the announcement of the report, see the website: http://www.gov.si/mf/slov/mediji/2005/spor1_18_01_05.htm

Peer Reviewer TWO Comment:

IBP Comment: Article 29 of the Audit Act stipulates that the SAI could request the auditee to submit a report that outlines remedial steps that were initiated to address the problems outlined in the audit report. In 2003, in about 80% of the cases the remedial steps were deemed satisfactory, and in 20% the SAI attested a violation of operational efficiency (See p. 94 of Budgeting in Slovenia)
